Assessment Test Requirements

- An assessment test will be given to each student in order to determine their level of Islamiyat, Quran, and Arabic.
- This assessment test will be scheduled for each individual student on the availability of teachers, and only on Sundays during school hours.

Expectations of the Student

- Must adhere to all School policies and procedures at all times.
- Must not engage in any activity that may endanger the safety of the student or any other person.
- All female students MUST wear hijab and observe Islamic dress code when on campus. Please dress modestly.
- No shorts allowed for boys. Boys must also dress modestly.

Attendance, Absences, Tardies, and Grades:

- Attendance is a must, however, if your child is not able to attend or is ill please be sure to call and notify the office. A written excuse the following week is necessary.
- Any students arriving late must stop at the office for a tardy pass in order to go to class.

- If your child needs to leave early for any reason, you MUST come to the office and sign your child out before leaving.
- All parents are responsible for ensuring that your child is dropped on time and is picked up on time.
- Parents will be able to see their children's grades online in order to check their progress using a provided student ID login and password.

Please Note

- Please complete the registration form and email to sundayschool.office@gmail.com
- Assessment test appointment will be scheduled according to the availability of the teacher during Sunday School hours on Sunday
- Please check your email regularly after submitting your application form for a response from the Sunday School Office.
